

The Great Australian Petfood Co. Pty Ltd is the result of a merger between Meat Bits Australia Pty Ltd and The Great Aussie Petfood Co. Pty Ltd.

Established in 1954 Meat Bits Australia Pty Ltd was one of the oldest dry pet food manufacturers in Australia. For 37 years they held the contract to supply dog food in the form of 'pemmican* blocks' to Mawson Base in the Antarctic for the huskies.

The Great Australian Petfood Co. Pty Ltd is an Australian owned pet food manufacturer based in Sydney, New South Wales, and is in close proximity to the sea port of Botany.

Due to Australia's strict Bio Security (AQIS), you can be assured that your product is free from diseases such as BSE (Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy, known as "Mad Cow" Disease). With Australia being an island nation you have the added protection from air borne diseases like HPAI (Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza).

The Great Australian Petfood Co. Pty Ltd uses the freshest ingredients, sourced from Australian farmers and growers in the production of all products.
